Vote of Thanks.

At a meeting of the Prohibition Executive Committee of Anderson county, held in Palestine on the 4th day of September, 1903, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

"Whereas, noble ladies from the cities of Tyler, Longview, Mineola, Crockett and Hempstead, Texas, came to Palestine at our invitation, and joined our ladies, together with Mrs. A. C. Zehner, in the most earnest and zealous labor to promote the success of our campaign for county prohibition, therefore be it resolved:

1st. That we extend our sincere thanks to these ladies for their untiring and unselfish efforts in behalf of our people.

2nd. That we promise the co-operation and assistance of our best citizenship, whenever the call from the cities whose daughters endeavored so faithfully to aid Palestine and Anderson county.

3rd. That we appreciate most highly the enthusiastic services of the women and of the children throughout Anderson county and feel happy in the knowledge that our cause was worthy of such co-helpers.

4th. That we regard Mrs. Zehner as one of the purest and truest and most high-minded and potent leaders of a great moral movement, and feel that our debt to her is large indeed.

5th. That we request the Daily and Weekly Herald and the

LUCKY WOMAN AT OLD HORSE SALE

Houston, Tex., Sept. 4.—There were several lucky strikes at the "old horse" sale of unclaimed baggage of the Houston & Texas Central and Southern Pacific railroads here today. A lady who had purchased a trunk for $1.75, found that it contained a great quantity of ladies' underclothes, two diamond rings and a sunburst brooch. She took the trinkets to a jeweler and he told her that their combined value was $270.
